Strengths

1. Quickness
2. Scoring sense
3. Scoring ability

Area's For Improvement

1. Strength on 1-1 battles
2. Defensive play
3. Positioning, being inside the game, keeping his speed.

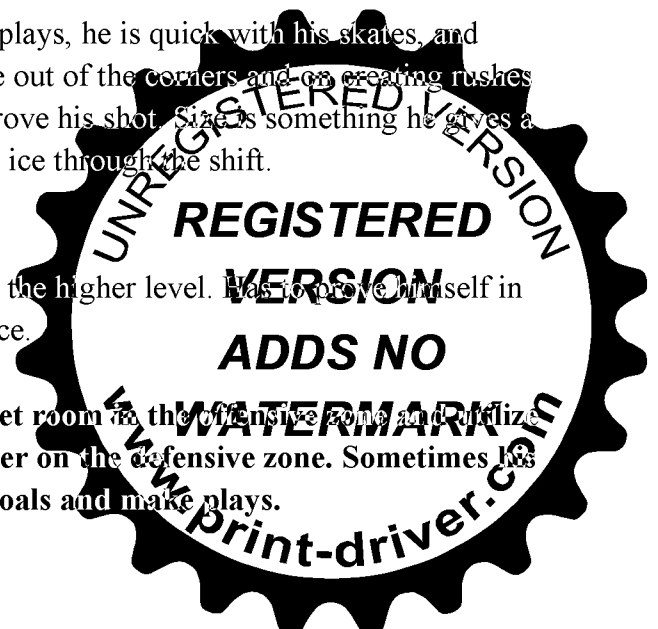

Skill:

Offensive-minded player, who can score as well as make plays, he is quick with his skates, and physically in a good shape. Needs to find his way to come out of the corners and on creating rushes more straighter forward. He needs more poise and to improve his shot. Size is something he gives a lot of handicap on. He also needs to keep his speed on the ice through the shift.

Scouting Report:

Has potential, but hasn't been able to take the next step to the higher level. Has to prove himself in K-Vantaa and find his way in the top two lines and produce.

NHL Potential: Needs size and strength to be able to get room in the offensive zone and utilize his quickness. Has to improve his shot and play stronger on the defensive zone. Sometimes his positioning is a bit off. 1-2 line player, who can score goals and make plays.

Style compares to: Martin St. Louis
