League: AMBHL
Date: November 4, 2009
Teams: Calgary Bisons – 3
At: Calgary Bronks – 3

Synopsis: This was the best game I've seen this year. Both teams kept up an amazing pace for the entire game. The Bronks jumped out to a quick 2-0 lead on first period goals by Jamal Watson and Samuel Megale. Bad blood from a game last week spilled over into this contest as both team played a very physical game.

The Bisons were able to cut the lead to 2-1 during the second period and if not for the play of Bronks goalie Nick Crisanti. Crisanti made a number of great saves including three separate breakaway chances.

The third period was much of the same as the first two with both teams leaving it all out there. The Bisons tied the game about a minute and a half in to the period. Hard forechecking from both teams kept the action intense, causing many good chances both ways. Both goalies came up big in the third keeping the game close. The Bronks took the lead on a beautiful effort by Jamal Watson with just over three minutes remaining, but the celebration was short lived. Tanner MacMaster of the Bisons tied the game less than a minute later.

Morgan Klimchuk of the Bisons missed his third game in a row with a lower back injury.

Top Performers: Calgary Bisons

18 Tanner MacMaster (F) - Tanner had a very solid game for the Bisons leading the way offensively with two goals including the game tying marker. Tanner worked hard around the net and used his skating ability to find open ice and create scoring chances.

Calgary Bisons

9 Jamal Watson (F) – Jamal played a very good game for the Bronks. Jamal scored two goals to bring his team leading total to 11. Jamal used his smooth skating and quick stick handling to beat two defenders in scoring a highlight reel goal. His speed and skill helped create many other offensive opportunities for his team. Jamal also showed more defensive responsibility in this game.
