League: AMBHL
Date: October 7, 2009
Teams: Okotoks Oilers – 4
At: Calgary Bisons - 13

Synopsis: The Calgary Bisons dominated this game from drop of the puck, until the final buzzer sounded. Aside from a ten minute stretch in the second period which saw the Okotoks Oilers score three power play goals and have a three minute 5-on-3 advantage, it was all Bisons.

The game looked close on the score sheet, with the Oilers only down 5-4 heading into the third period. The Bisons buried all their chances in the final frame, exploding for an eight goal outburst to take a 13-4 win.

Top Performers: Okotoks Oilers

14 Jordan Williamson (F) – Jordan played a very hard game. Even in the third period when the game was out of reach he continued to play with an aggressive style. Jordan was a big part of the rally in the second period scoring two or the three goals.

Calgary Bisons

11 Morgan Klimchuk (F) – Morgan was dominant throughout the game. He ended up with five of the 14 Bison goals, and at times he looked as though he had the puck on a string. Morgan sees the play unfold well and is able to be in the right place at the right time. Morgan played a very smooth game.
